

Christina Ramb

Member of the Executive Board

©BDA | Chaperon

Christina Ramb was born on October 30, 1973, in Munich.

From 2002 to 2018, Christina Ramb held various positions at the Confederation of German Employers' Associations (BDA). From 2018 to 2020, she was head of the Labor and Qualification Department at the Ministry of Labor, Health, and Social Affairs of North Rhine-Westphalia (MAGS). Christina Ramb has been a member of the Executive Board of the Confederation of German Employers' Associations (BDA) since September 2020.

PERSONAL DATA:

- Born on October 30, 1973, in Munich
- First state law examination at the University of Regensburg (1997)
- Second state law examination at the Munich Higher Regional Court (1999)

CAREER PATH:

- 2000-2001: Research assistant in the Bundestag office of Ilse Aigner, Member of the Bundestag, Berlin
- 2001-2002: Press spokesperson for the CDU parliamentary group in the Berlin House of Representatives
- 2002-2018: Confederation of German Employers' Associations (BDA) in various roles, including Head of the Labor Market Department (2012-2018), Head of the Planning, Coordination, and Policy Issues Department (2005-2012), and Head of the Office of the President and Chief Executive (2004-2007)
- 2018-2020: Head of the Labor and Qualification Department at the Ministry of Labor, Health, and Social Affairs of North Rhine-Westphalia (MAGS)
- Since September 2020: Member of the Executive Board of the Confederation of German Employers' Associations (BDA)

HONORARY POSITIONS & MEMBERSHIPS:

- Alternating Chair of the Administrative Board of the Federal Employment Agency (BA), previously (Deputy) Member (2012-2018)
- Deputy Chair of the Board of the Foundation of German Business (sdw)
- Member of the Broadcasting Council of Deutsche Welle
- Former member of the ZDF Television Council (2008-2017)